

Export Control Law Disclaimer

Certain Phoenix Contact USA products, including software, documentation, services, and related technical data, which are available on our website and other websites, are subject to export controls. Such controls are administered by the United States through agencies such as the U.S. Department of Commerce Export Administration Regulations (“EAR”), among others and by other countries using controls for re-export under the European Union, the Singapore Strategic Goods Control Act, and the various import regulations of other countries.

Any diversion contrary to U.S. or other applicable law of any Phoenix Contact USA product or service is prohibited. Any export, re-export or import of products and services may require action on your behalf, prior to your purchase. It is your responsibility, as the purchaser, to be aware of and to comply with all applicable international, national, state, regional and local laws, and regulations, including any import and use restrictions.

Phoenix Contact USA products and services are currently prohibited from export or re-export to Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria, or to any country then subject to U.S. trade sanctions (e.g., Afghanistan and Iraq). Phoenix Contact USA products and services are also prohibited for export or re-export to any person or entity named on the following lists:

- U.S. Department of Commerce Denied Persons, Entities and Unverified Lists
- U.S. Department of State's Debarred List
- U.S. Department of Treasury's lists of Specially Designated Nationals, Specially Designated Narcotics Traffickers, or Specially Designated Terrorists.

Phoenix Contact USA products and services are prohibited from use with chemical or biological weapons, sensitive nuclear end-users, or missiles, drones or space launch vehicles capable of delivering such weapons.

By downloading any information, using any product from our website, or by purchasing any service, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this notice and agree to comply with all applicable export control laws. You also represent that you are not under the control of, are not located in (as a resident or national) any prohibited country, and are not considered to be a prohibited person or entity.

This notice is not intended to be a comprehensive summary of the export laws that govern the products and services. It is your responsibility to consult with a legal advisor to ensure your compliance with applicable laws, especially in cases where your changes as to form, fit or function of the Phoenix Contact USA product would require a reclassification before exporting.
